LEAVE A LEGACY TO ST GEORGE'S HALL CHARITABLE TRUST

St George's Hall is recognised as the emotional heart of Liverpool, where memorable moments in Liverpool's life converge. Your gift will help St George's Hall Charitable Trust preserve and protect this magnificent cultural icon for many generations to come. Every legacy, large or small is important to the Trust and a gift in your will can make a real difference to our work.

St George's Hall Charitable Trust is a registered charity which works to ensure that St George's Hall is restored, conserved and developed for the future.

A VERY PERSONAL GIFT

Leaving a legacy in your will is a very personal decision and you may not wish to tell us about it, but we would appreciate knowing in advance so that we can tell you more about how your gift may be spent. We would also love the opportunity of thanking you for remembering St George's Hall in this way.

There are different ways you can leave a gift in your will to St George's Hall Charitable Trust which play a vital role in helping protect this very special place;

✓ A gift which is for general purposes; this is very useful as it means we can use the funds where they are needed most at St George's Hall

✓ A gift which is for a particular aspect of the Trust's work, eg:

- education
- restoration
- conservation
- music

We will allocate your gift to the greatest area of need within your chosen category of support at the time of receipt.

We always recommend using a qualified solicitor to make a new will or to add a codicil to an existing will. You can find a solicitor in your local area using the Law Society's website:

www.lawsociety.org.uk

When you are writing your will you may see some new words which refer to the kind of gift you can leave to a registered charity like St George's Hall Charitable Trust;

- ✓ a pecuniary gift – this is a gift of a fixed sum of money
- ✓ a specific gift – we are not always able to accept non-cash donations, if you would like to do this please contact us to discuss
- ✓ a residuary gift – this is a share of whatever is left in your will after all debts have been settled and other gifts made

You should discuss with a qualified solicitor which type of gift you would like to make.
